Tax Partner Joins Paul, Weiss in London

New York and London, March 31, 2025 – Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison LLP announced today that Deeksha Rathí has joined the firm in London as a partner in the Tax Department. Rathí advises corporate clients on a range of UK and international tax matters, including the tax aspects of M&A and corporate finance transactions.

“Deeksha is a talented adviser who has worked on a range of sophisticated tax matters,” said Paul, Weiss Chairman Brad S. Karp. “Her expertise will help strengthen our ability to advise clients across the UK and beyond on the tax implications of their most critical transactions.”

“Deeksha’s deep knowledge of UK and international corporate tax law will further bolster our full-service transactional offering, which requires strong tax capabilities and advisory experience to solve our clients’ toughest issues,” said Timothy Lowe, global co-head of the Tax Department and head of the European tax practice at Paul, Weiss. “We are thrilled to welcome her to our growing London office and our global tax team.”

Rathí advises a broad range of domestic and international clients on all areas of UK corporate tax law, including high-value, complex M&A, corporate finance transactions, and disputes and settlements with HMRC. Her representative transactions include, among others, The 1887 Company on its sale of The Famous Grouse and Naked Malt scotch whisky brands to William Grant & Sons; Arrow Global on its acquisition of Amitra Capital; Videndum on its capital raising; and Orchard Therapeutics on its acquisition by Kyowa Kirin.

Rathí earned a LL.B., with honors, from Amity Law School in India; and both a Bachelor of Civil Law and a Doctor of Philosophy in Tax Law from the University of Oxford. She is admitted to practice in the UK and India.

Paul, Weiss’s Tax Department handles tax implications in corporate transactions of every stripe for a range of industries and geographies. Working closely with the firm’s Corporate and Restructuring departments, the firm’s tax lawyers help clients solve problems, avoid pitfalls and uncover hidden value in all types of transactions.
